

Course Orientation held at GJTCM Lahore

a. 16 Jul 2011. Open House Course Orientation

People from different segments and areas of Lahore were invited to an open house courses orientation program held on 16 Jul 2011. About 45 people attended. The gathering was briefed about the various training courses being held at GJTCM, Lahore. The gathering also visited different class rooms where they were briefed about the courses by the respective instructors.

b. 1 Aug 2011. Course Orientation for the Women Wing of Gold Art Promotion Council

The women wing of Gold Art Promotion Council was invited to GJTMC, Lahore in the first half of the day, to acquaint them with the courses being run here. They were shown the work produced by different training courses and briefed about the method of instruction. They were then taken on a tour of different classes and briefed about the machinery being used for trainings.

c. 1Aug 2011. Courses Orientation for SECTOR ( OLD ANARKALI IN PARTICULAR)

In the second half of the day the sector representatives of old Anarkali were invited through their association president Mr. Asad ullah who also attended. About 15 members attended the course. They were shown the work produced by the students and briefed about the courses being organized here.

They were particularly briefed about the manufacturing courses and explained how the manufacturing courses have been re-designed including different modules to make it wholesome training instead of being fragmented.

